Techie Kids Proudly Announces its first Program Partner
Techie Kids Partners with World Literacy Crusade's Girl Power Programs

Miami, FL (Feb. 23, 2011) – Techie Kids is a new organization based in Miami, FL. We are a career-focused, educational partnership program dedicated to creating bright futures for kids through technology and media... and our first program partner is Girl Power, a World Literacy Crusade of Florida 501(c)(3) nonprofit program.

The Techie Kids' mission is to inspire kids and teens - through technology and media - to discover their own unique gifts and abilities in order to create bright futures for them as well as make a difference in their lives and the communities in which they live. Starting this summer (2011), we will introduce at-risk girls – ages 11 – 17, in the Liberty City community – to various careers including journalism, desktop publishing, building websites and blogs and online marketing.
